

Block Grant

Federal money allocated to states, cities, or counties for distribution to community groups, charities, and other social service providers, most often administered under the allocated agency's rules and regulations (also known as "formula" grant). URL:

<http://answers.hhs.gov/questions/3208>