

Level III Residential Setting

These facilities provide continuous 24-hour supervision and intermittent treatment in a group residential setting to persons who are determined to be capable of independent functioning but still need some protective oversight to insure they receive needed services.