

Interim Service Plan

A written description of interim behavioral health services and other informal supports that have been identified to address immediate needs until an Individual Service Plan (ISP) is developed.