

Individualized Education Program (IEP)

A written education plan for an eligible child with disabilities developed by a team of professionals (teachers, therapists, etc.) along with the child's parents. It is reviewed and updated annually and describes how the child is presently performing, what the child's learning needs are and what services will be provided to the child.