

Reduction of Service

Reduction of service occurs when a decision is made to reduce the frequency or duration of an ongoing service. A reduction of service does not include a planned change in service frequency or duration that is initially identified in the person's service plan and agreed to in writing by the person receiving services or his/her legal guardian.