

Special Assistance

The support provided to a person who is unable to articulate treatment preferences and participate effectively in the development of the service plan, ITDP, grievance and/or appeal processes due to a cognitive or intellectual impairment and/or medical condition.